Home Comfort Ranges!

It was long ago said, "Let us make the songs of a nation, and we care not who makes its laws." We say in these modern times, "Let us make the cooks of a nation, and we care not who makes its apothecaries." But in order to teach the cooks the art of preparing food as will make it palatable and wholesome, we must first furnish them with good apparatus. This will give the advantage of economizing time and saving labor. It is of the utmost importance that the article on which our daily food is cooked should be the very best article in the house, as health depends largely upon the food we eat, and more so on how it is cooked.

Years of experience and practical tests have demonstrated the superiority of wrought-iron ranges over all other kinds of ranges or cooking stores, on account of their greater durability, larger cooking capacity, ease of management, certainty of operation, and solid economy in use of fuel. In all these points the "Home Comfort" range stands unrivaled, and the unprecedented demand for them from all parts of the country, in strong words, to their great popularity; and the universal testimony of thousands of cooks, hotel, restaurants, public and private institutions now using the "Home Comfort" is, that they are not only unsurpassed, but unequalled by any other cooking apparatus upon the market. The improved malleable iron water-heaters used by us are of capacity sufficient to furnish abundance of hot water, and, with our hotel sizes, to, at the same time, operate a steam table connected with the Range, thus cooking all kinds of vegetables, soups, puddings, etc., thoroughly and without danger of burning, by the same fire which heats the ovens, thus doubling its capacity without increasing the amount of fuel used.

New York, November 3.—I think James G. Blaine is beaten. New Jersey, Connecticut, Indiana, California and Nevada, all States that voted for Tilden or Hancock, are almost certain to cast their ballots for Cleveland. New York, October 3.—The campaign closed, leaving everything in doubt, but New York State, Senator Gorman says this, while Manager Elkins persists in the belief that Blaine's election is assured. A tour among political managers early last night yielded little or no information, for the reason that real information or positive knowledge on any point is lacking. The managers are all at sea and preface every statement with "I think." It is a positive fact, however, that the Republican managers have formally given up this State. They have done little or nothing here since the day succeeding the Ohio election. The fight has never been in this State, as was said in these dispatches, eight weeks since, but the managers think we have done enough to make the Democrats think we are safe, and to give them a clear majority. Good Democratic opinion to-day gave Cleveland New York by 30,000, and the same opinions give Indiana, to the Republicans and Ohio to the Democrats. The greatest anxiety exists in both parties regarding New Jersey and Connecticut. Ten days since both States were considered safe in the Democratic column. At present there is at least a doubt about them, because of the sudden and unexpected move the Republicans have made in piling men and money into them.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., November 3, 2:30 P.M.—So intense is the interest in to-morrow's fight that business is practically suspended to-day, and yet very little electioneering is in progress. The partisans seem to have, by tacit consent, let the situation stand as Saturday found it.

The Republican managers and the Democratic papers are complaining with such vehemence that there are large importunities of Democratic members of Congress being voted from Missouri and Kentucky, but their charges are general and without specifications. In fact, for the reasons given in my dispatches several days ago, it will be very difficult for any imported voters to deposit their ballots, however many come here. Captain John I. Martin, who has been campaigning for several weeks, is especially unfortunate in the master of notoriety, as both the Indianapolis and Cincinnati papers this morning declare that he is about to be unseated.

Dudley Only Claiming a Republican Majority of 3,000—The Democrats Confident and Even Jubilant.

By Telegraph to the Post-Dispatch.

INDIANAPOLIS, November 8.—The steady and rapid growth of Democratic enthusiasm which set in two weeks ago culminated here Saturday night by one of the most remarkable demonstrations of the season. Arrangements had been made by the Democratic managers for a monster parade which, without drawing any recruits from other parts of the State, should eclipse everything that the Republicans have done without drawing anything from other sections of the State. The Republicans naturally looked with some apprehension on this final effort of the campaign, because of the fact that for the past week the Democratic multitudes and hurrahs have been so unprecedented as to have an immense effect on the floating vote. Accordingly, when a thick, steady rain set in early this evening, the Blaines men indulged in public manifestations of delight, and from under their umbrellas had great fun taunting the regretful Democrats. Of course this only served to make the latter more determined, and after a number of hours of fever work put out that the parade would take place, it was reported that the march was received with tremendous cheers from all parts of the city, and at 8 o'clock the torches began to appear. The rain continued steadily, but no man, woman or child flinched. The campaign had to be wound up, and was over in time to be striking. A large number of handsomely decorated wagons or floats appeared at the numerous bearing scores of pretty girls in white and spangled costumes, who seemed all the more merry for the drenching they were receiving. Bands in full uniform reported for duty, notwithstanding the fact that the streams of water running into the funnels of their instruments served to give an asthetic effect to the music. Transparencies bearing a striking assortment of legends were a dilapidated aspect, but saluted high. One transparency, labeled "Tell the Thruth," gave emphatic contradiction to the lie that all the Irish have left the Democratic party, and several banners bore the terrible effect legend, "Run, Romanism and Rebellion," which provoked storms of hisses wherever it was viewed. Troops of mounted torch-bearers came from every point of the compass, and occasionally an enthusiast put in an appearance with a live rooster perched high on a platform mounted on a pole. The parades were mostly formed in length, and as passed along through the drivings rain, became more massive than though the night was clear, as it showed how terribly in earnest were the Democrats of Indiana in this great contest. After the procession there was speaking in English's Opera House and in the open square which serves for political meetings here. McHolland, Carey, Hanna, Noyes and Vorhees were among the speakers, and it would be difficult to conceive of a stronger finale to a lively campaign.

At no time have the Democratic managers manifested the confidence that they show now. There is no make believe about it. Chairman Henderson and all of his assistants are fairly bubbling over with the prospect. In the view which they take they have the hearty endorsement of Senator Voree, Judge Hanna, Gov. Hendricks, Gen. Carey, and all of the canvassers who are here to-night, the estimate of the Democratic majority running as high as 10,000, and even 15,000.

THE SOUNDS IN STRANGE CONTRACT does not rest merely upon the processions and sky-rockets which have burst such a large factor in Democratic politics late, but rests first on the logic of all the known facts which will go to make up the result, backed up as it has been by the reports of sixty-eight special messengers who sent out over the State over two weeks ago by the State Committee. Each of these messengers was assigned to one or two counties, with instructions to investigate for themselves and determine whether the results indicated by the Democratic poll are being borne out. Reports from these gentlemen have been arriving daily during the past week, and they are uniformly of the most gratifying character.

It seems altogether probable that the Republican committee has been receiving news of the same general character. Mr. Dudley, who has been spending a couple of days at his home in Richmond, in attendance on his sick wife, returned here Saturday and spent the entire day in figuring on the polls of the State, as amended by latest information from various sections. To-night he was very moody. He was asked his opinion of the result, and he stated, with a good show of nerve, that it was his opinion that the State would give Blaine 8,000, and possibly 5,000 plurality.

THIS SOUNDS IN STRANGE CONTRACT with Mr. New's very confident assurance given me a week ago, that the Republican majority would not fall below 10,000 under any circumstances. There are a few indications of the use of Republican money in this city, but the amount is so far very limited, and unless the same increases tenfold to-day and to-morrow the Democrats anticipate no serious results. It is said in Republican circles to-night that Mr. Dudley, while not taking any conspicuous part in the management of the campaign, has so arranged matters that the treasurer of the Committee handles the fund forwarded by the National Committee, and Mr. New is thus cut completely out. Whatever may be the cause, is seemingly a very much disgruntled political tonight. Gen. Logan returned here Saturday evening, and was doubtless more interested than amused by the demonstration which so completely dwarfed his own affair of Friday night. He still expresses his belief that the State is all right for the Republicans. I passed through Plymouth Saturday morning and saw an ocean of Democrats gathered there. I was assured that it was the largest meeting of the campaign in that section.

MR. JOHN H. CRANE

rose for a considerable distance on our train, and was somewhat embarrassed when two young men who were polling the passes called him his presidential preference. He declined to vote on the ground that he was an interested party, and this discovered his identity. The poll showed 80 for Blaine, 17 for Cleveland, 2 for John and 3 for Belva Lockwood. The conductor said there must be something wrong about that, for three-fourths of the men he had carried during the past week were Democrats. It was explained a few moments later by the discovery that there was a Republican rally at Kokomo, near which point the train was at this time. Governor St. John thinks the Prohibition vote of this State is underestimated and that it will reach 5,000.

On the whole,

THE SITUATION IN INDIANA

seems very much more favorable to the Democrats than to the Republicans, and it is very certain that part of the voting masses which is affected by enthusiasm and which aims to vote with what appears to be the majority will give its support to Cleveland.

"We have been very cold-blooded in our calculations during the past two days," said Austin Brown the Democratic National Committeeman, and unless there shall be a miracle, we can see how the Republicans can carry the State. I do not think they will attempt the bulldoing methods that prevailed in Cincinnati, because we have been careful to give them the address of the State Committee and the name of the chairman, and we have been careful to let them know that we are not the ones to blame for the failure of the State Committee which was recently published. He has been quite unfortunate in his Indianapolis experiences, however. Many years ago, when he came here with Hon. Edward Bates, Captain James B. Eads, Poor bility is fixed in the highest courts, but we are determined to have an absolutely clear case to make the fight upon. I do not know of much use of money thus far, and fraudulent voting is the only method that now seems possible by which our established majority can be overcome. Our party has done more work in the past seven days than in the whole campaign before that."

Sunday was very quiet here, and without notable event. The city, which in times past has always worn an aspect of bustle and excitement on the Sunday prior to the election, has been even more than ordinarily quiet, and the hotel registers show a large number of visitors outside of newspaper correspondents from all over the country, and campaign speakers, who are having their headquarters in the city prior to departure for their respective States to participate in those elections.

THE BATTLE HAS BEEN FIGHTED, and very little will be done to-morrow in any part of the State, except to make the final arrangements of election details. I am considerably puzzled by what has appeared to be the apathy of the Republican managers during the past two days. They have not appeared to be busy, nor have they appeared to be quite as happy. The air worn by Commissioners Dudley and Chairman New has been rather that of listlessness. The callers at the committee rooms have been comparatively few, and in fact all of those active and noisy conditions which usually characterize a political headquarters in a hotly contested State on the eve of an election appears to be wanting. This fact has been quite generally noted, and the theory of explanation which has found most favor is, that the lack of spirit simply means a lack of cash. It may be only a blunder, but Republican strikers have been heard to complain very loudly during the past twenty-four hours that where there were dollar four years ago not even dimes were to be had now.

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE is blamed in all quarters for the financial stringency, which indicates that the State Committee has been making excuses to relieve itself of responsibility in the premises. Reports came to the Democratic leaders to-day from one or two wards that the campaign had to be wound up, and the Democrats are now quite well satisfied that the national committee was responsible for the result. Colonel Nornille was very highly complimented by Senator Thurman last night, who pronounced him "a cross between Curran and Mirabeau." In Saturday night's rain storm an impromptu meeting of several thousand near the route of the procession was entertained by rousing speeches from John L. Martin and Thomas S. Hogan, both of whom spoke in rubber coats, and held their crowd against the rain.

The best way to punish the Deputy Marshals is to vote against them.

A VOTE for CLEVELAND and HENDRICKS is a vote for patriotism and honesty.

THE unpunished star-route thieves call on us to vote for BLAINE and LOGAN.

A VOTE against BLAINE is a vote against Mulliganism in the White House.

THERE is only one way to beat Old Pills, and that is by electing JOHN M. GLOVER.

The election of CLEVELAND will banish Tattooed men from national politics forever.

A VOTE for CLEVELAND is a vote in favor of keeping the power in the hands of the people.

A VOTE for BLAINE is a vote for fanaticism, intolerance, narrow-mindedness and prohibition.

Mr. FILLEY's Deputy Marshal ought to bring out a heavy Democratic vote in St. Louis.

The election of CLEVELAND will put an end to the mission of the gentlemen who handle "soap."

To-MORROW will show that the Government of the country is not decided by Delmonico diners.

The election of CLEVELAND will be followed by a panic among the rogues and rascals of public life.

The defeat of BLAINE will put an end to the employment of Deputy Marshals as political persuaders.

ST. LOUIS will not cast her full vote under any circumstances, but the nearer she comes to it the better.

The election of CLEVELAND will put an end to all such things as "a bloody shirt campaign with money."

A GOOD service will be rendered to decent politics by the Republican local ring is laid out cold to-morrow.

The election of CLEVELAND will restore the just and natural relations between the Federal and local power.

The election of CLEVELAND will be an assurance to the country that the war is over, once and forever.

A VOTE against BLAINE is a vote against fixing the Supreme Court at the command of piratical millionaires.

This elects CLEVELAND and HENDRICKS; but there is more than this.

The Union Pacific and the Central Pacific are two strong arguments in favor of CLEVELAND and HENDRICKS.

The election of CLEVELAND will be a rebuke to the fanatics who raise the issue of "Rum, Romanism and Rebellion."

We do not say that every Republican is a star-route thief, but we say that every star-route thief is a Republican.

We do not say that every Republican is a subsidy grabber, but we do say that every subsidy grabber is a Republican.

The defeat of BLAINE will lop off the hundreds of excrements of Federal power which have grown up in twenty-four years.

A VOTE for BLAINE is a vote for JAY GOULD, C. P. HUNTINGTON, RUSSELL SAGE, VANDERBILT and the whole ring of money kings.

It is real kind in the United States Government to give us several hundred Deputy Marshals to make MIKE FOERSTEL Sheriff.

Moss has long since passed the age of political retirement. The Tenth District respects old age, but employs youth when work is to be done.

INDIANA will be a doubtful State for about twenty-four hours. After that Indiana will be a Democratic State for about twenty-four years.

The election of McLEAN would make St. Louis the laughing stock of the nation.

The election of GLOVER will secure for the whole city a creditable representation in the Congress which is destined to carry out the radiating from the constellation Leo, and there is always a possibility that an unexpected number of falling stars may make the heavens resplendent with their fiery train.

General Grant and the Stalwarts.

From the New York Herald.

It is noticeable that though General Grant was in New York he had not sat at the Delmonico dinner. He was not wanted as a capitalist, because he has retired from that character, but he was in demand as a citizen of the country, the world and the nation.

On the other hand we have in Mr. GLOVER a candidate whose character and record are wholly unassailable. He is young, bright, capable, energetic, ambitious, and honest. He is a good lawyer, a hard worker, and in every relation of life he has borne himself well.

His opponent is a mere money-bags. He is a doctor ignorant of medicine, a legislator ignorant of law and a statesman ignorant of his mother tongue. His money has secured him the support of the Republican machine, and between his bank checks and his bosses he expects to make of the district a grand advertisement of his vernacular and liver pills, none genuine without the endorsement of the Ninth District.

The election of McLEAN would make St. Louis the laughing stock of the nation.

The election of GLOVER will secure for the whole city a creditable representation in the Congress which is destined to carry out the great work of national reform.

A WORD WITH THE MUGWUMPS.

The nomination of McLEAN, alias Old Pills, for Congress in the Ninth District, is accepted as an insult to the respectable Republicanism of the district. It should be resented as such.

The question is how can such an insult be repented?

There is only one way—that is by securing for Mr. McLEAN so crushing and emphatic a defeat that there will never be any chance of his inflicting himself on a convention again. That can be done only by voting for his opponent.

They want the influence of the White House to compel Congress to such jobbing legislation as will help their monopolies.

They want early and private information to enable them to rig the stock market.

The American people mean to leave their affairs and interests to the mercy of such a combination?

The advice given to the mugwumps that they should throw away their votes is nonsense. It is charged against them that they are mere theorists, amateurs, dreamers, dilettantes, impractical, incapable, etc. They would go very far towards justifying all these charges, if at a critical time, a test vote, with the decision of the election practically in their hands, they should throw away their strength and declare that their mission in politics was a nullity.

We expect a heavy mugwump vote to-morrow.

ROMBAUER'S RECORD.

We print on another page the platform on which the friends of Judge ROMBAUER support his candidacy for the Court of Appeals.

It is a most flattering tribute to his personal and judicial character, and yet no one can say that it is undeserved. The testimonial which he received on his retirement from the bench were hearty and sincere; they were intended as the genuine rewards of a term of service conducted with equal ability and fidelity.

The people of the appellate district have every reason to feel secure that if they elect Judge ROMBAUER the interests of justice will be confided to safe and worthy hands.

JUSTICE TO MR. SULLIVAN.

The efforts of the well-known St. Louis gambling ring are notoriously directed to securing the defeat of Mr. MARSHALL F. McDONALD for the position of Assistant Circuit Attorney. The exposure of this feature of the campaign by the Post-Dispatch has been complete and beyond question. No denial of our statements can be made, and none can be made.

While, therefore, the Post-Dispatch has such good reasons for wishing and working for Mr. McDONALD's election, our sense of justice compels us to say that neither the personal professional nor political character of his opponent, Mr. SULLIVAN, should suffer any harm from any relations of his to the campaign.

Mr. SULLIVAN is entitled to the full benefit of his good character and untarnished reputation, he has been a faithful public servant, and it is not even alleged against him that he has allowed himself to be swayed by any influence in the discharge of his public duty; no one will concede that he has done this.

His brother GOLDFORD and HENDRICKS are a vote for CLEVELAND and HENDRICKS is a vote for patriotism and honesty.

THE unpunished star-route thieves call on us to vote for BLAINE and LOGAN.

A VOTE against BLAINE is a vote against Mulliganism in the White House.

THERE is only one way to beat Old Pills, and that is by electing JOHN M. GLOVER.

The election of CLEVELAND will banish Tattooed men from national politics forever.

A VOTE for BLAINE is a vote for fanaticism, intolerance, narrow-mindedness and prohibition.

Mr. FILLEY's Deputy Marshal ought to bring out a heavy Democratic vote in St. Louis.

The election of CLEVELAND will put an end to the attitude of the Democrats in the present Congress and from the character of the men nominated by the Democracy, they rightly infer that a Democratic victory will mean the end of plutocracy, of monopoly and of unbridled plunder, and they have at last openly and desperately accepted the issue.

THE OUTLOOK.

It does not require many words to sum up the situation of the day before the national election. The indications all point to the success of the Democratic ticket.

New York is practically given up by the Republicans. The election of CLEVELAND will restore the just and natural relations between the Federal and local power.

The election of CLEVELAND will be followed by a panic among the rogues and rascals of public life.

The defeat of BLAINE will put an end to the employment of Deputy Marshals as political persuaders.

ST. LOUIS will not cast her full vote under any circumstances, but the nearer she comes to it the better.

The election of CLEVELAND will put an end to all such things as "a bloody shirt campaign with money."

A GOOD service will be rendered to decent politics by the Republican local ring is laid out cold to-morrow.

MADISON COUNTY.

It Will Go Back on Horizontal William.

The Vote Four Years Ago—The Tariff Question Troubles It—The Neglect of River Improvements—Summing Up—The District in Detail.

Madison County can no longer be considered an unknown quantity in the Morrison-Needles problem. Its value is by this time determined, and on Wednesday morning there will be announced a Needles majority of about a three hundred weight.

This will be a surprise to many. Opinions as to the county's preferences have varied, and the average voter has not known how to size it up. The Morrison enthusiast has claimed the county by at least 500 majority in the Needles man's behalf, while the Republicans have been such enormous changes in popular opinion that the Needles men claim they will carry the township, and Judge Collins, the principal follower, said to the press yesterday that the result will be very hard pushed to carry the township.

REVELSTOKE TOWNSHIP.—will give 150 to 170 votes to the Needles. Saline about 45, and Albion about 50 majority. Leaf, Olive and Newell Townships will come to the front with Needles majorities of 30, 10 and 40 respectively.

The first two because the townships are for a Morrison majority of 45 votes. In 1884 there were only two Republicans in the place, and when Wm. Edwards said he would vote against Morrison, it was judged to be worthy of a procession and serenade.

Troy Township will give 30 majority to the Needles, and the rest of the county will be divided between the two parties.

With Bond and Washington Counties, Madison will endorse Mr. Needles by a very substantial majority. It will be curious to the front line leaders to see upon what ground the Morrison party has come up, and it may be discovered that the generator was of a much inferior quality than the one way or the other.

Godfrey will give Mr. Needles about 40 or 50 majority.

MODEST LITTLE SURPRISES.—

together with the results predicted from Atton, is the election which one must judge of the political sentiments of the county. In that year an honored and respected gentleman and a few politicians Mr. Pierson, the only candidate of the Morrison party, represented the views of the Republican faction satisfactorily. Mr. Morrison had not as yet made any great impression upon the election, and was suspected of free-trade leanings. The floods of '81, '82 and '83 had not exasperated his popularity. He had come up with a shrewd and enterprising plan, and his neglect of the situation had not become widely known. Besides this Mr. Morrison was very popular; always had a pleasant disposition, and was a favorite with the public.

Under all these favorable circumstances one would think that a decided preference for Mr. Morrison had been shown, but it is not so clear.

It only gave Hanover 100 majority to the Needles, and the rest of the district, with the exception of one or two, were for the Needles.

There was a good round majority.

HANOVER CARRIED THE COUNTY.—On the books it is given to Morrison by 247 votes. The result of the election is that the Hay and the timber are in favor of the Needles.

He has the misfortune to certify them that it was an accident, and had the result from the whole district been at a standstill, he would have been beaten by 400 votes.

He has however a large majority assured him the victory, whether the same was given to him by two, or by 400.

It is the situation.

No household is complete without a barrel of "John Clegg's Purity" flour in the larder. It is a source of more every-day pleasure than any other possession of the family.

RAILWAY CHANGES.

Missouri Pacific Employees Handled Without Gloves—The Owl Train—Notes.

Another important change is about to be made on the Gould and Wahab systems. H. H. Wellman at present general storekeeper of the Missouri Pacific, will be made purchasing agent and storekeeper of the Wahab and Robt. B. Lytle will remain purchasing agent of the Missouri Pacific.

There are a great many changes transpiring in the affairs of the Missouri Pacific employees. According to present reports a number of train baggagemen on the Iron Mountain division of the railroad have been made and each conductor permitted of their being subjected to the malingering influence of a shower and whose instincts of self-preservation caused them to stay where the weather was bad.

As Gilkeson has been made and each conductor permitted of their being subjected to the malingering influence of a shower and whose instincts of self-preservation caused them to stay where the weather was bad.

The new owl train on the C. B. & Q., between St. Louis and Chicago, will be operated by a conductor arriving at 4:30 p.m. yesterday afternoon, and a first-class in every respect.

The weather may have something to do with it, the confidence of the Democrats leading to a light-heartedness against which clouded skies cannot prevail, while the doubt and fear of the enemy is intensified by the gloomy appearance of the sky, well remembering that the Republican party is largely composed of men who are not afraid to face the elements.
